Hillsong United, You Are My Rock

There's a voice in the silence, piercing the darkness of my own selfish soul There's a cry deep within me, a yearning to fell you I look to you, Lord

I can pretend I don't run from the feelings I'm trying to hide Must get the focus of me and my problems I look to the cross

You are my Rock On You I stand Safe from the storms that surround me You're my only Rock, In you I can Don't have to rely on my own strength.
