

Hollywood Undead, CHAOS

Bombs dropping on the runway the oceans overflow
I know for certain one day
I'll see you down below
I'll find some solace Some day and you'll reap what you sow
I'll see you Bloody Sunday
So you can break my soul

Close your eyes
Blinded by the fire in the sky
Misguided by the tribe
Sacrificed to the lord of the flies

No one can save you
no one can save you
the chaos awaits you

I can't see you tomorrow cuz I might die today
I sing this sorrow with a smile on my face
Can't see tomorrow
Are we dead or alive
When the blind lead the blind in the chaos

Chaos, Chaos, Chaos

Haaa
I'm dead inside from the drip of violence
Don't you dare close your eyelids
Break you down just to the break the silence
Can you hear it, It's too quiet
