

Hollywood Undead, Empire

[Funny Man]
Em-pi-re! (x4)

[J-Dog]
Feeling like today is the day
You better make a move
Up and out of the fray
You better execute
Through the city decay
The people watching you
Get the fuck out the way
'Cause they can get it too

Lord as your witness
You just don't need no forgiveness
Don't know who's next on your hit list
You just handle your business
You're suicidal I'd say
A bloody tidal wave
Don't give a fuck if they hate you
You're the God that they pray to

[Danny]
Heavy is the head that wears the crown of thorns
My empire
My empire
Heavy is the head that wears the crown of thorns
My empire
My empire

[J3T]
I'm all alone with my solitary violence
God, I wanna sleep, but I can't close my eyelids
Back to the streets, 'cause we know all the right kids
Built this fucking city on the backs of the white bricks
So fucking cold!
Another dead sentence and another soul sold
It's all I know!
I'm gonna die fast, bitch, you can die slow
I'm a dead man
A fucking dead man walking
I blew my head off but he kept on talking
Saw myself die and I kept on watching
Went straight to heaven, but I kept on knocking (kept on knocking)

[Danny]
Heavy is the head that wears the crown of thorns
My empire
My empire
Heavy is the head that wears the crown of thorns
My empire
My empire

You're the God that they pray to

[Danny]
My empire (x2)

[Charlie Scene]
I'm a storm without a warning
The black clouds that are forming
I turn the river red
I am deliverance
I'm a storm without a warning
The black clouds that are forming
I turn the river red
I am deliverance
