

Honorata Skarbek Honey, I still want you

1.

I thought i'd stop writing bout you but i need to find the truth tell me why you didnt try why you left me saying "i love you" your empty words inside my head i cant help myself, my heart just melts
but i know with you i wasnt safe i wasnt created for hurting,(i wasnt created for hurting,) i feel my heart stops beating(heart stops beating) i wanna walk alongside of you and hear your voice the way with you its my only choice Ref: I look in the mirror, theres no one in the backgroud i just want you to be here with me thats the reason im crying now
