HOW TO DESTROY ANGELS, Keep It Together

I feel the skin that separates us, Start to fade And when i lye on top of you, I?m afraid I can see right through myself, Crystal clear I am disassembling I could disappear, Disappear

There is a voice inside of me, I don?t know
And all his words keep echoing
Trim and low
I?ve been waiting for a sign to appear
He has a message waiting for me
But I don?t wanna hear
I promise,
I swear,
I can not keep it together

I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can not keep it together
I can keep it together
