

Howie Day, Madrigals

i'm not so sure what i was dreaming about but i'm sure it was better than this and i'll hope you suppose that i'm alright (i'm thinking of hours That...I...)

told everyone, you know everything is real in here
and your madrigals and your silver rings i still see a flash
from the time i opened my eyes too wide(...tonight)

i couldn't have asked you to stay i'm already falling to pieces from this and i'll hope you suppose that i'm alright i'll stay here for hours waiting up for you

(i told everyone, you) know everything
is real in here
i still see a flash
