

Hozier, Almost (Sweet Music)

i came in from the outside burned out from a joyride she likes to roll here in my ashes anyway played from the besides Stella by starlight there was my heart the drums that start off night and day the same kind of music haunts here bedroom I'm almost me again she's almost you

I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
be still my foolish heart
don't ruin this on me
I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
be still my foolish heart

tell me who have I been thinking of the numbered lovers of Duke Ellington do I owe each kiss to lip and cheek as soft as Chet can sing? let's get lost and let the good times roll let's smoke rings from this paper doll blow sewwt and thick til every thought of it don't mean a thing I got some color back she things so too
I laugh like me again she laughs like you

I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
be still my foolish heart
don't ruin this on me
I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
be still my foolish heart

I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know
I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know where
I wouldn't know

the very though of you and am I blue? a love supreme seems far remobved I get along without you very well some other nights lord, the radio newsreader chimes reporting Russia Lullaby she'll turn to m awake and ask is everything alright?

and Lord,
I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
be still my foolish heart
I wouldn't know where to start sweet music playin in the dark
