

Human Radio, I Don't Wanna Know

(R. Rice)

you could give me lots of reasons to walk right out of here or you could beg me to stay but i know you're gonna disappear you could smile and say nothing enjoy the challenge of your secrecy coz you can have another lover baby just don't let it get back to me coz when i can't feel a thing i feel alright
n when i don't like what i see
i turn out the light
coz i don't wanna know
last night i walked right by a homeless man my eyes stared into space coz even if i gave him everything i had i couldn't make his world a better place this great green world where there's enough for all don't tell me starvation is too much to handle they tell me reach out and change the world and i reach out i reach out and change the channel
coz when i can't feel a thing
i turn out the light
what's going on
