

Hurricane Dean, Flat Random Noise

there is someone looking up to me at least i thought so but now she is changing her behaviour she looks away, embarrassing me and i can not ignore

right in my head, i got the choice between black in black and flat random noise
right in my head, i got the choice

such a beautiful girl in a beautiful world makes me losing my mind leaves the troubles behind my hopes and my dreams live in you like my fears and my worries do i feel close i feel distant but well you are my heaven, you are my hell

between black in black and flat random noise
right in my head, i got the choice
between black in black and flat random noise

between black in black and flat random noise
right in my head, i got the choice
