

Hurt, Aftermath

Somebody take me,
away from the darkness,
somebody take this from me.
If anyone's out there?
If anyone hears me?
Somebody take this from me?

I was beginning to think
i had lost my mind.
Fell upon it hard
and fell upon my hardest times.
But the way she lit the room at night
cast shadows to their gloom.
And i still dream of your perfume. I would do anything to be with you.

Edelweiss,
angel why?
Comfort me, From so far away.
angel white dream of mine
Come for me, From so far away.
Angel eyes sweet love of mine.
Come back to me,
though so far away
Please don't cry
Theres still time
I wont change.
So far away
Please don't cry
I wont.
