

Hurt, Better

Those things you thought that were obscene,
will quickly become your routine,
And he invited you over.
An addict quickly gets undressed,
With something to get off her chest.
You made a trade cause you're sober.

It stings to remind you of all that's behind you,
But I don't wanna lose you right now.

Cause they say it gets better,
Before it gets worse.
You know it gets better,
so of course it gets worse.

Your body's made of dollar bills,
You'd spend them all on some cheap thrills.
But what when you're older?
You stuck a point into your arm,
but did you contemplate the harm?
As it moves up your shoulder.

Did it make you feel better,
right before it got worse.
It used to make you feel better,
but now it just hurts.

There's no hope,
Cause I'm in love with you.
and I cannot cope,
cause I'm addicted too.

You keep on coming over me. (You're killing me)
I keep on crying over you. (You're killing me)
It shows me what it's come to be, (You're killing me)
It shows me what I mean to you. (You're killing me)
You keep on coming over me, (You're killing me)
I keep on crying over you. (You're killing me)
It shows me what it's come to be, (You're killing me)
It shows me what I mean to you. (You're killing me)

And after all you would think it my fault,
When all in all I know is that you're killing me.

<lyrics>

Those things you thought that were obscene
Will quickly become your routine, and he invited you over
That night, it quickly gets undressed
With something to get off her chest
You made a trade 'cause you're sober

And it stings to remind you of all that's behind you
But I don't want to lose you right now

'Cause they say it gets better, right before it gets worse
And you know it gets better, so of course it gets worse

(Your body's made of dollar bills)

You'd spend it all on some cheap thrill
But what when you're older?
(You stuck a point into your arm)
But did you contemplate the harm?
As it moved up your shoulder

Did it make you feel better, right before it got worse?
I used to make you feel better, but now it just hurts

That there's no hope when I'm in love with you
And I cannot cope, 'cause I'm addicted too...

You keep on coming over me
I keep on crying over you
It shows me what has come to be
It shows me what I mean to you

You keep on coming over me
I keep on crying over you
It shows me what has come to be
It shows me what I mean to you
Yeah, 'cause you're killing me

[Break]

Yeah

You keep on coming over me
I keep crying over you
It shows me what it's come to be
It shows me what I mean to you

You keep on coming over me
I keep crying over you
It shows me what it's come to be
It shows me what I mean to you
Yeah, 'cause you're killing me

You keep on coming over me
I'll keep crying over you
It shows me what it's come to be
It shows me what I mean to you

You keep on coming over me
I keep crying over you
It shows me what it's come to be
It shows me what I mean to you
Yeah, 'cause you're killing me

And after all you would think it's my fault
When all and all I know is that You're killing me
