

Hurt, Thank You For Listening

Like the others say,
I can know your pain, But I couldnt Get used to it.
As another bird has gone, Its like seven years alone. I just couldnt get used to it.
And i believe in, What i see in your eyes.
And i believe in, what i see, here in your eyes.
I believe in what is real.
The only thing is pain, and its so real.
And i thank you for listening to how i feel. Cuz its just what i needed.

and to be me,
and to be me 'and to be cuz i believe in what is real

If only the only thing is pain
Then its "soo real"
and i thank you for listening to how i feel. Cuz its just what i needed.
Like the pain that made it real.
And i finally found out how,
because you finally showed me how.
It feels to be you,
and to be me
and to be me
and to be.
