

Hurts, Suffer

Show my your sexy little intellect i'll show you how to make your head and body disconnect my darknest feelings are to coalesce and i feel the bubbles as my blood stars to effervesce

Whisper your pretty little epithets
And run your fingers down my body like a bayonet
I see your flexing in the silhouette
So tilt back your head if you want ot feel the full effect

I feel , i suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, i suffer, i suffer

Touh me and make me feel your mistery
And play my like you play your twisted little symphony Cause i am just addicted to i am just addicted to i am just addicted to the way you get the worst of me and a little world i dissapear into you into you

I feel , i suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, i suffer, i suffer
I feel , i suffer
I lose myself in you
I feel, i suffer, i suffer
