

Hyde, Faith

I entrust my will to you

Love is lost kizutsuke au you ni
The desire fires it on Kanashii sekai wa rensa suru
Worshipping an image
All people should be equal,
we are all God's children
Never try to judge your enemy

I will climb that hill in time - for truth
And I will bear the cross upon my back
I entrust my will to you - meaning of love
To one who understands, I'm satisfied

Koboreru onaji chi
Without feeling sorry for me
Mabushii hikari wo kanjiru
Because I go to Him

You must love each other,
as I love each one of you
Come, walk in my footsteps

I will climb that hill in time - for truth
And I will bear the cross upon my back
I entrust my will to you - in your hearts
I see a future that is full of calm, it guides me on

To you I entrust my will
I see a future that is full of calm
In you my will lives on Carried down through time
My will lives on
Carried down through time
My will lives on
Carried down through time
My will lives on
I see a future that is full of calm
