

I Haunt Wizards, Sailor Moon

Somehow make her feel like a princess then sever her castles
Her kingdom can just lay broken
I wouldn't tell it straight, it's better this way
Only believe it; scars and lifeless hopes only come of it
There's no concern so long as she melts
I don't need advice
I taste just like your best friend two days ago
I'm not who you think I am, I'll always wear masks to hide
