

Icehouse, Street Cafe

By Icehouse
Street Cafe

Iva Davies

if there were no tomorrows if there was just one more chance I'd take it again you know I'd take it again you turn and it's gone forever
in time you forget
you know that's love
it's only love and no matter where the days have left you every day ends at the street cafe
the street cafe
and no matter where the road may take you every time it brings you back to the street cafe it's where you have to be well the people may come and go but here the street and the scene is just the way that it was
the way that it was
no nothing will ever change here maybe a smile reminds you now and again
you wonder now and again when another night will take you nowhere you go down to the street cafe and any time you know the crowd can hide you the days end at the street cafe yeah the street cafe
you turn and it's gone forever
in time you forget
you know that's love
you know it's only love but no matter where the days have left you
every day ends at the street cafe
the street cafe
and no matter where the road may take you
every time it brings you back to the street cafe
yeah the street cafe
oh no no no no matter where the road may take you we'll meet again someday you know we'll meet someday someday at the street cafe