

Idina Menzel, Still I Can't Be Still

Well I don't believe in god
But she talks to me all the time
And I banish my mother
But she holds me when I cry
And I have been unfaithful for
With me he'll spend the rest of his life

Yet I have been forgiven
By all whom I've betrayed and loved
And I have everything I want
Is it ever enough?

Chorus: Still I can't be still
Still I can't be silent
Still I can't be still
Still I can't be saved
Still I can't be still
I can't be silent
Still I
Still

Well I don't believe I'm beautiful but
At least I have my sister's smile
And I resist the muses but
They sing to me in exile
And destiny is not deafening
But it hushed me like a child
And every time I feel as though
I'm closer to the eye
The storm winds blow
I run inside, and though I feel revived-

Chorus

The insatiable peace
Of my quest for, for true serenity
No matter how hard the rain
The thirst, the thirst is never ending
No matter how many friends for angels been sent down to take me away
They can't make it okay

And every time I feel as though I'm
Closer to the eye
The storm winds blow
I run inside, and though I feel revived
Yes every time I feel as though I'm
Closer to the eye
The storm winds blow
I run inside, and though I feel revived
I don't believe I'm beautiful
But least I've got my sister's smile
And I resist the muses but
They sing to me
Still
Destiny is deafening
