

Iggy Pop, Break Into Your Heart

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow to the scene where you begin

Times so tired, closing in
Four more hours to go
When the times to spin
I'm getting in
Gonna be in time

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow to the scene where you begin

Let me in, this [?]
But you're never gonna grow
Your heart is buried underneath
Mountains copped with soap

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow to the scene where you begin

Break em' all
Take em' all
Fake em' all
Steal em' all
Fail em' all
Touch em' all
Break em' all
Break them

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna break into your heart
Till it all comes crashing down

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm only break into your heart
And follow to I get under your skin
And the walk is tumbling down
And you finally let me in
I break into your
