

Igo, I need no love

I fight myself but it's too much for me to carry
I reach out the stars and I can see them clearly
Ooh, there's too much to let it be now
I still think of you somehow, mhh
I've spend all night in my head to share this feeling
I've tried so hard but it seemed that I've been dreaming
Ooh, it's to much I had to leave now
I still think of you somehow
Somehow

Lately

Oh, I need no love baby
Oh, I need no love, leave me
Oh, there's too much for me to stand now
I still think of you somehow

I'd like to try

There is nothing in this world that I want more
Since I was born it wasn't easy for me to show
Ooh, my feelings are black and white
You gave color to my life somehow

Lately

Oh, I need no love baby
Oh, I need no love, leave me
Oh, there's too much for me to stand now
I still think of you somehow
I still think of you somehow
Oh, I need no love baby
Oh, I need no love, leave me
Oh, there's too much for me to stand now
Oh, I need no love baby
Oh, I need no love, leave me
Oh, there's too much for me to stand now
I still think of you somehow
