

Igo, U could be mine

Iv'e been dreaming for so long hoping
That someday you could be mine
Maybe I could have leave you alone
When I had my chance
Have I been talking way too much
I hope that you don't mind
And if I've been working for too long

I am sorry but I, sorry but I
Iam taking you serious now someday you will be mine
Don't act like he's the one
That you really like'cause
You could be mine you could be mine

On my knees I rather be
I rather be

Maybe I could have you leave you home where you chose to stay at night
I heard you screaming 3 o'clock in the morning Girl just tell me about that Have he been angry about something that you didn't tell him about (or you forgot to tell him)
And now I am the one that's worrying
That you're getting hurt
You're getting hurt
