Igo, U could be mine

Iv'e been dreaming for so long hoping That someday you could be mine Maybe I could have leave you alone When I had my chance Have I been talking way too much I hope that you don't mind And if I've been working for too long

I am sorry but I, sorry but I lam taking you serious now someday you will be mine Don't act like he's the one That you really like'cause You could be mine you could be mine

On my knees I rather be I rather be

Maybe I could have you leave you home where you chose to stay at night I heard you screaming 3 o'clock in the morning Girl just tell me about that Have he been angry about something that you didn't tell him about (or you forgot to tell him) And now I am the one that's worrying That you're getting hurt You're getting hurt
