

ILLUMISHADE, Cloudreader

Read the clouds
Let them pass
Know their ways by now
Winding paths
Lead the way
Trust that I'll know how

These days they fade
And midnight washes over me

Clear the skies so I can fall into
Endless nights of ephemeral stars
Feed my eyes so that I remember
We're just one under the sun

Lows and highs
Come in waves
Feel the rolling tide
Mountains grow
And crumble down
Leave nowhere to hide

Clear the skies so I can fall into
Endless nights of ephemeral stars
Feed my eyes so that I remember
We're just one under the sun

We're just a bunch of fleeting lights
Glowing in the dark

Clear the skies so I can fall into
Endless nights of ephemeral stars
Feed my eyes so that I remember

Clear the skies so I can fall into
Endless nights of ephemeral stars
Feed my eyes so that I remember
We're just one under the sun
