

Imagine Dragons, Dull Knives

I'm holding my breath
Holding so tight
Nothing is wrong
Nothing is right
I'm in the dark
Looking for light
Won't someone please save my life?

Inside I'm a mess
But I don't let it show
I'm just hanging on
But you never know
I smile all day
And cry through the night
Won't someone please save my life?
Is fleeting

Dull knives
Taking my life
A slow burn fire
From the inside
Dull knives
Twisting my spine
They're taking their time, time
Till I lose my mind

A smoldering flame
Deep in my heart
Barely a sight
It's barely a spark
Holding on through
Every night
Won't someone please save my life

I'm crying for help
It's such a cliché
Invisible pain
Is filling each day
I open my mouth
And feed you a lie
Won't someone please save my life

Life is fleeting
No repeating

Dull knives
Taking my life
A slow burn fire
From the inside
Dull knives
Twisting my spine
They're taking their time, time
Till I lose my mind

Dull knives
Ripping from the inside
Spare me the ride
From the inside

Dull knives
Twisting my spine
They're taking their time, time
Till I lose my mind

Dull knives
