Impellitteri, Warrior

I could see the city lights then they turned to black then I heard a sirens crying sounding out ATTACK! I could see the rockets glare shooting in the night everyone was praying for their lives am I dreaming I don't believe it am I wrong or right then I heard a voice say in the night I'm a warrior, take my hand! let me lead you to the promised land I'm a warrior, take my hand! I'm a soldier under his command then I saw this blinding light I heard a sonic boom I could feel the earth shake in the doom I couldn't see him but I could feel him lift me to the sky I could hear the voice that saved my life I'm a warrior, take my hand! let me lead you to the promised land I'm a warrior, take my hand! I'm a soldier under his command [solo] am I dreaming I don't believe it am I wrong or right then I heard a voice say in the night I'm a warrior, take my hand! let me lead you to the promised land I'm a warrior, take my hand! I'm a soldier under his command I'm a warrior take my hand!
