

In This Moment, The In-Between

my mother said that i was holy my father said that I would burn my mother said I was an angel my father said that I would turn so I believed these words and I turned on myself cause maybe he's right maybe I'm worthless or maybe he's wrong and my mother was right I have a killer in my to give me purpose

I can feel a holy war
I can feel a holy war within no, I can't take e holy war no, I can't take e holy war, again

is this what you wanted

I am gonna bring a little hell
I am gonna bring a little heaven you just keep wanting more whit your blood and your whore
I am gonna bring a little hell
I am gonna bring a little heaven
it's a beautiful tragedy
you want to be sick like me

I was told that I was nothing I was told that was pure I was told that I was dirty I was told I was the cure so I ask myself am I god or shit and I the high the low I ma fucking worth it and I ask myself and I love or hate you are the reason I have and why I can't quit

I can feel a holy war
I can feel a holy war within
no, I can't take e holy war

I am gonna bring a little hell
I am gonna bring a little heaven
you just keep wanting more
whit your blood and your whore
I am gonna bring a little hell
I am gonna bring a little heaven
it's a beautiful tragedy
you want to be sick like me
