

InExit, Spirits

I don't believe in the kingdom of heaven
I don't care if there's damnation in hell for me
I don't mind
I don't mind
I have no feelings
All I want's for my spirit to fly, fly free

Spirits fly free
Spirit's here with me
Spirit's fly free
They're right here with me

I don't believe in god and the devils
I don't care for salvation and the powers be
I don't mind
I don't mind
I have no feelings
All I want's for the world to see the real, real me

I don't believe in the kingdom of heaven
All I want's for my spirit to fly, fly free

I don't believe in the kingdom of heaven
All I want's for my spirit to fly, fly free

Spirits fly free
Spirit's here with me
Spirit's fly free
They're right here with me

Is it time for the spirits to fly free?
Is it time for the world to see real me?
Is it time for the spirits to fly free?
Is it time for the world to see real me?
