

Insania, Solur

Strike a pole into the ground, And make sure you see the Sun
'Cause it will show you in which way to go
And where you're left out in the Dark, You'll be surrounded by the Stars
Let them tell you, You're never alone

Bridge:

Travel far, Let the sundial show the way
It will never leave you astray

Raise your sails and you'll cross the mighty seas
Release the ravens and hope they won't return
Enter lands that you've never seen before
Let them fires burn

When you look upon the sky, - have you wondered why?
Why the stars, they are moving away
And when you pray to Ancient Gods, And they're all demanding blood
Can't you see they are not here to stay

[Bridge]

Casting blood, searching glory to your name
But your whole world is about to change

Raise your sails and you'll cross the mighty seas
Release the ravens and hope they won't return
Enter lands that you've never seen before
Let them fires burn

Solo: Dahlin/Both/Dahlin/Östros

[Bridge]

Travel far, let the sundial show the way
It will never leave you astray

Raise your sails and you'll cross the mighty seas
Release the ravens and hope they won't return
Enter lands that you've never seen before
Let them fires burn - Just make them burn
