INXS, Taste It

Yes it's me I am the one To make you see Where we belong I was shaking Like a leaf All wrapped up In my dirty sheets If I agree To what comes next I would be faking With the best of them It seems a crime I would commit Without the difference Of all the world's gifts Sweet sweet sweet Could you taste it Never never never Never never never Taste it To dream All the time Without a scream In the dead of night All those faces Come back to me I'll be begging To swim that sea Yes I made A picture story Make you cry In all your glory A need to quench The thirst of many To justify And make ready
