

Iron Savior, Burning Heart

Who do you think you are
To tell us what to do
What makes us minor to you
We don't need advice
We don't need smart ass talking
Look at yourself and keep walking

Leave me alone
With all your words of wisdom
For once and all - for once and all time
This is the bottom line

Take your life
Life it your way
Forget it in the amber
Of a bournig Heart
Life it for tomorrow
Taking on the future
With a bournig heart

Blinded by conformity
Obedience and rules
Now who are you to call us fools
We won't adapt, we are different
We're unique
And your egomania
Makes me goddam' sick

Leave me alone
I'm gonna make it on my own
For once and all - for once and all time
This is the bottom line

Take your life

Solo (Piet)

We don't need your guiding star
No need to tell us who we are
Leave us alone
For once and all time
And once again
Here comes the bottom line

Take your life

Life for tommorow
Life it your way
At bournig heart
Life for tommorow
Taking on the future
With a bournig heart and soul
At bournig heart and soul
