

Iron Savior, Iron Warrior

Here and now you wonder
Looking at the past
Start to realize
Time's running fast
Decisions made and chances missed
But here you are
Still standing strong

Locked up in adaption
Like a tiger in the cage
Tainted by an anger
Tangled up
Your life is in need
To be purged

And the battle rages on
Lone fighter
Keep on standing strong
But still the battle rages on
And when you're back against the wall
Never surrender - stand up
And fight them all

The struggle for survival
You're sick of all
Those goddamned days
Stumbling like a blind man
Through the maze

Routine and conformity
Have taken on control
Regain your independence
Drag yourself
Drag yourself out of the hole

And the battle rages on
Lone fighter
Keep on standing strong
But still the battle rages on
And when you're back against the wall
Never surrender - stand up
And fight them all

Solo (Piesel)

Routine and conformity!
Have put you in that hole
Time to free the tiger
Release yourself
Time to get back in control

And the battle rages on
Lone fighter
Keep on standing strong
