

Iron Savior, Ironbound

Something malicious hides in the black and it's about to attack The forces are gathering we're riding tonight for the sake of mankind

infernal destruction
is marking the trace planets and worlds in a blaze Blood will be shed
and lives will be lost bold we will stand at all costs

Godess of war
you shall bless us tonight give us the power to win Give us the strenght
and the courage to fight though we shall never give in

We're standing strong
to carry on until the end of all until the tyrant falls
tenthousand ride
tenthousand will fight
out on the killing ground ironbound we unite

A monster is forcing it's way through our rows unrelenting it grows
seeking control
of body and mind
leaving just wasteland behind

Savior, giant of steel
lead us to victory
The Knights of Atlantis are raising the sword warriors for liberty

....

Armys are smashing
the titans are clashing Fire is burning the air cosmic inferno
of blood and brutality far beyond any compare

Ironbound
we will unite
we will fight
Ironbound
we shall be standing strong

oh, we shall fight until the end
