Isabel LaRosa, Older

Think I need someone older
Just a little bit colder
Take the weight off your shoulders
Think I need someone older

Baby Am I your little secret 18 I'm old enough to keep it

Yeah, guys my age just aren't the same I'm young and that's okay

Think I need someone older
Just a little bit colder
Take the weight off your shoulders
Think I need someone older

Darlin'
Hold me while you wipe my tears
Fallin'
You say I'm wise beyond my years

Yeah, guys my age just aren't the same I'm young and that's okay

Think I need someone older Just a little bit colder Take the weight off your shoulders Think I need someone older

I know I'm younger As your lover But I've always wanted a man For the summer Age is a number My dear, I know you'll understand

Think I need someone older

Think I need someone older
Just a little bit colder
Take the weight off your shoulders
Think I need someone older
