

ItaloBrothers, One Day

One day, we'll be singing again, la la la
One day, we'll be laughing again, ha ha ha
One day, we'll be clapping again
One day, we'll be singing again, la la la
One day, we'll be laughing again, ha ha ha
One day, we'll be clapping again
(Get ready, go)

One thousand people at a club in Berlin
Twenty thousand people in the streets having fun
Three-four hundred thousand people at Tomorrowland
No more party on the internet, imagine that

Tick tock, tick tock, the time is coming
Tick tock, tick tock, better start running
No time, don't stop, the world is spinning
So right now, won't you come and count down with me?
(Five, four, three, two)

One day, we'll be singing again, la la la
One day, we'll be laughing again, ha ha ha
One day, we'll be clapping again
One day, we'll be singing again, la la la

One day, we'll be singing again, la la la

Tick tock, tick tock, the time is coming
Tick tock, tick tock, better start running
No time, don't stop, the world is spinning
So right now, won't you come and count down with me?
(Five, four, three, two)

One day, we'll be singing again, la la la
One day, we'll be laughing again, ha ha ha
One day, we'll be clapping again
One day, we'll be singing again, la la la

So right now, won't you come and count down with me?
(Five, four, three, two)
