Ivy, Shallow

She's in love again, oh yeah Rise above again, oh yeah His number's fading on her hand And it's a day to remember

Shallow, shallow Shallow, shallow

What an easy game to play What a perfect thing to say He tells her 'you're the world to me' OWhy don't we dive in together'

Shallow, shallow Shallow, shallow

Sun dies on a beautiful show Dream on 'cause there's nowhere to go He'll say what she's wanted to know Over and over, forever

Shallow, shallow All we ever had to be All we ever wanted to be
