

Iza Lach, Enjoy the Heartbreak

I feel different
Very different
That's I feel save
That would be with someone else
I feel different
Very different
Last I felt dump
Tending to someone else

I enjoy the Heartbreak'
I need the pain
I wanna feel hard day
So hard to explain
The truth is, love means heartache
You can't escape...
So, if you're dealing with heartbreak
Enjoy it while you can

I finally understand what love is
It should be build with the emotions
And when it's over it should breaks your heart
Breaks your heart

Or it's
I feel all the different things
I do understand what love is
And now I know it's breaks my heart
It's breaks my heart

It may feel strange
Doesn't seem fair
But relationship seems fail
Truth is, watch to bury
That's why it's different
Enjoy the distant
In the end shows you
How much it care

I enjoy the Heartbreak'
I need the pain
I wanna feel hard day
So hard to explain
The truth is, love means heartache
You can't escape...
So, if you're dealing with heartbreak
Enjoy it while you can
