

Iza Lach, The One Who Leaves

Don't wanna be the one who leaves
But I don't have the time
I gotta catch up my dreams
Make all those things
I couldn't do with you

We can talk
But I can't sleep with you no more
Something's changed
And this is how I make it work
Through the storm

Don't be mad
I hope you know it's not your fault
Something's changed
And there's nothing you can do to make it work

Don't wanna be the one who leaves
But I don't have the time
I gotta catch up my dreams
Make all those things
I couldn't do with you

Don't wanna be the one who leaves
But I don't have the time
I gotta catch up my dreams
Forgive me please
I couldn't go to say goodbye

We can talk
But this will be the last time
I thought you knew
That I'll be on my way to go
