

Jack Ingram, Talk About

We've got to fight just to find something to talk about
It ain't right that we're got nothing to say
I always thought I could run
Now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something to say

It used to be we could walk around in silence
You could see things were good
Now the pain of what ain't said
It's gone to my head
Cause anyone can see things ain't good

I ain't saying there ain't no more love here
It's just that I fear something's wrong
Can't you see that I'm doing the best I can now
To figure out how we can get along

We've got to fight just to find something to talk about
I ain't saying there ain't no more love here
It's just that I fear something's wrong
Can't you see that I'm doing the best I can now
To figure out how we can get along
We've got to fight just to find something to talk about
Cause it ain't right that we've got nothing to say

I always thought I could run
Now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something to say

Yeah, I always thought I could run
Now I'm under the gun
And I fight just to find something to say
