Jack Savoretti, What More Can I Do?

in this moment of silence i see the two sides of enemies in a peace, and in the violence I am so scared of what I hear your sound fall on my like tears

What More Can I Do?
no one ever sees this side of you all your little lies I know that's true all the foolish things you do is ask me to believe in I fall to my knees I bagger you please What More Can I Do?
no one ever sees this side of you maybe its lie buts it still true all the foolish things you do I never stop lvin' you!
