

Jackie Greene, Every Now And Then

Well i've been so many places i've been around, i've been around and i've seen so many smiling faces turn into frowns, turn into frowns yes i used to spend all my money on the things that never last i always felt that i was running and the time kept running past but every now and then i get a notion and i get to feeling like i felt before never could i bury my emotions and every now and then i want you more well i may have made some bad decisions so have we all, so have we all but it's never like you envision not at all, no not at all you know it's so hard to get up in the morning with your head in your hands i wish that i could have had some warning i might have changed my plans

but every now and then i get a notion
and every now and then i need you more now i'm getting older so are you, yes so are you the wind outside, it feels colder but i guess i knew, i always knew oh, someone give me religion before i die, before i die there's somewhere my heart will be forgiven it's in the sky, it's in the sky and every now and then i get a notion

never could i bury my emotions and every now and then i love you more
