

Jackie Lomax, So Unhappy

I've told you many times before to change your ways
You'd better listen to me or else one of these days

You're gonna be so unhappy
You're gonna be lonely
'Cause I'll leave you alone
Be on my own

You'll dry in your sleep, you'll toss and you'll turn
Why must it always be the hard way to learn

When you're gonna be so unhappy
You're gonna be lonely
'Cause I'll leave you alone
Be on my own

When you're gonna be so unhappy
You're gonna be lonely
'Cause I'll leave you alone
Be on my own

Your problems are just like clouds, they'll soon fade away
If you don't believe that, I know there'll soon come a day

When you're gonna be so unhappy
You're gonna be lonely
'Cause I'll leave you alone
Be on my own
