

Jackson United, Back To Me

goodnight, lay your weight on mine more than side by side
buried in tonight

goodbye, i won't be just fine i'm faking my smile
gone a little while

what i'm waiting for
you to be, back to me

goodnight, over this for my message left to write
i can't sleep tonight

goodbye, miss your weight on mine empty into light
morning blackest night

goodnight, hold your heart in mine miss you said tonight
sleep holds you to light
