

Jacob Young, You Don't Have To Be Alone

When the dark descends
And you feel air
And you lost all sense of who you really are
And you look outside at the endless sky
And you think no one can see you crying
Don't you know you can call on me
I can help you to believe

CHORUS:

You don't have to be alone
You don't have to cry those tears
Thinkin' that nobody's ever gonna understand
You don't have to blame yourself
When everything is out of reach
I will be the one who's gonna teach you how
You don't have to be alone

Oh, oh

When you need a friend, but you're so afraid
To just lay down all your defenses
Can you let me in?
I will lead you back
To open fields without fences
I will always hear your beating heart
So no matter where you are

CHORUS REPEAT

I'll build the bridge
We can walk down together
And I'll find a way to lead you home
And if you should go any baby
All you have to do is just look for me
I'll be at your side
And everything's gonna be alright

CHORUS REPEAT

Don't be afraid
Cuz everything's gonna be alright
You don't have to be alone
Cuz I will be at your side
don't be afraid
Cuz everything's gonna be alright
You don't have to be alone
Don't be afraid
Cuz everything's gonna be alright
