Jacob Zaborski, Emotions (feat. Piotr Szumlas)

Closed eyes, falling tears Different things about my situation Beating heart Screaming whisper What shall I do with my life?

I hate myself, Show me the ray of hope Open the window Take me to the limbo Don?t give me your emo People say I?m an error I see my soul in the mirror And now you feel my emo

Bright clouds, pleasant sounds Something that makes me happy No guarantee Please, help me Why did you leave me alone?

I hate myself, Show me the ray of hope Open the window Take me to the limbo Don?t give me your emo People say I?m an error I see my soul in the mirror And now you feel my emo Emo

You?re still talking And trust me too much Believe in yourself Can you hear me now?

Open the window Take me to the limbo Don?t give me your emo People say I?m an error I see my soul in the mirror And now you feel my emo
