

Jake Epstein, What I Know

I don't know if you'll forgive me
For being so blind
To how you felt
Don't ask me why I couldn't see it
It might take me years to figure out
And that's not something I know much about
But there's only one way to find out
Yeah, yeah, yeah

What I know is that I've hurt you, oh
What I know is that I suck
And what I know is that I'm sorry
What I know is that I'm a loser, yeah
What I know is I screwed up
And then I never earned your trust
And what I know is that everything I touch just turns to dust
