

Jamai, Wildest Dreams

You, go around in circles in my mind wondering were you are tonight I have a dream you in my life that your lying here it's alright you don't see the smile, that's in your eyes how deep of love and feeling it's making me believing

chorus

maby i can hold you baby i can show you like a river on it through your heart don't know where to start to find the words to tell you that i love you with my hopes around you only when i close my eyes do you realise that is only in my wildest dreams oooh open up the door into your life only you can let me in tonight you want believe the joy you bring to me you're the sun. the moon revolve in my world tell me, if it's only make believing you may be my destiny could you feel the same for me

only in my wildest dreams
