James Arthur, Empty Space

I don't see you You're not in every window I look through And I don't miss you

You're not in every single thing I do I don't think we're meant to be And you are not the missing piece

I won't her it whenever anybody says you name and I won't feet it even when I'm bursting into flames I don't believe that I was blessed I'm probably lying to myself again

space, space this empty space space, space this cause only you could fill this empty space

I've been drinking I've been doing things I spuldn't do overthinking I don't know who I am without oyu I am a liar and a cheat I let my ego swallow me and that's why I might never see you again

I couldn't make you love me I couldn't make you love me

I couldn't make you love me space, space

I couldn't make you love me I couldn't make you love me I couldn't make you love me space, space I couldn't make you love me I couldn't make you love me
