

James Arthur, Is It Alright?

We come in from the cold, your hands are frozen
I could keep you warm, let's start again
I still wanna be your superhero
But you keep saying we just can't be friends

Feels like two minutes ago you were laughing at all my dead jokes
When did it change for you, my love?

Is it alright if I lay with you just one more night?
Let's evade the truth
And go back to the first time that we both felt the same
And we were just falling like tears in rain
Is it okay if we play pretend
Just for one more day or one more night?
Is that alright?
'Cause I'm not doin' so well

I need you like the pills that I've been taking Give me half a chance, let's start again
My eyes are on the floor, I'm devastated
'Cause I know how this goes if you walk away

Feels like two minutes ago it was you and me against the world
Now it feels like my whole world is ending

Is it alright if I lay with you just one more night?
Let's evade the truth
And go back to the first time that we both felt the same
And we were just falling like tears in rain
Is it okay if we play pretend
Just for one more day or one more night?
Is that alright?
'Cause I'm not doin' so well

Oh don't leave me now
Said don't leave me now, oh
I said don't leave me now, don't you leave me
I said don't leave me now, oh

Oh, is it alright if I lay with you just one more night
Let's evade the truth
And go back to the first time that we both felt the same
When we were just falling like tears in rain
Is it okay if we play pretend
For one more day or one more night?
Is that alright?
'Cause I'm not doin' so well
