

James Bay, Need The Sun To Break

I'm halfway gone, sleepless I'm battle-worn
You're all I want, bring me the dawn

I need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm sinking, all my love could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I needed
I hope that I'm not too late, I hope I'm not too late

Back of the room, how come my friends already know you?
Feel like a kid, too shy to speak up so I keep it hid
Oh butterflies, you steal my sleep each night

I need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm sinking, all my love could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I needed
I hope I'm not too late, and I hope I'm not too late

I need the sun to break, you've woken up my heart
I'm sinking, all my love could change
Been in the dark for weeks and I've realized you're all I needed
I hope that I'm not too late, and I hope I'm not too late
