

James Reyne, Rumour

We were going through the motions
You know I need you tonight
Yesterday is over
I got the red eyes
And you are my sight

Hi hi give me a chance
Hi hi don't you know
Hi hi show me a picture
You got the word and you won't let go

Chorus
Rumour it's a rumour
Don't believe a story every time its told
Rumour it's a rumour
All that glitters sure ain't gold

Got to be devotion
You know you're making me cry
Day is just beginning here comes the sun
You took my hand now you're waving goodbye

Give me a sign
All these words are just so unkind
Give me a second chance
Build it up this long romance

Hi hi give me a chance
Hi hi don't you know
Hi hi I heard a whisper
You got the word and you won't let go

Rumour
Rumour
All that glitters sure ain't gold
