

Jamestown Story, Change

Everyone is watching
Everyone is waiting
Everywhere we look now all there is, is hating
We just have no tolerance
We don't compromise
All we are is worthless objects in our own damn eyes!
Caring for each other just does not exist
All we wanna do is solve our problems with our fists
So let's change this
Rearrange this
Don't contribute, try to change it
Be forgiving all living
Because life's too short to hold a grudge for time
Please, just try! (just try)
All you have to do is try
Everyone is watching
Everyone is waiting
No one's even hopeful everyone's so jaded
Good times never come and bad times always seem to last and everything's screwed up cuz we live our lives too fast
So let's change this
Rearrange this
Don't contribute, try to change it
Be forgiving all living
Because life's too short to hold a grudge for time
Please, just try! (just try)
All you have to do is try
So let's change this
Rearrange this
Don't contribute, try to change it
Be forgiving all living
Because life's too short to hold a grudge for time
Please, just try! (just try)
All you have to do is try
